

Shanique Rodriguez

Shanique Rodriguez is the Executive Director for The Massachusetts Voter Table. Shanique has dedicated over a decade to organizing in BIPOC communities across Massachusetts as a social, political, and reproductive rights/justice Organizer. With a BS in Criminal Justice from Mount Ida College, a native of Kingston Jamaica; she brings to her work her lived experiences and passion for uplifting and finding justice for marginalized communities like her own.

When she is not at work, she wears many hats in her community of Springfield and statewide as the Female Vice-Chair of her city's Democratic Committee, also an elected Democratic State Committee Member of Massachusetts, Advisor on the Black Advisory Committee to Governor Maura Healey, member of the Endorsement Committee member of Repro Equity Now Board, and former Vice Chair and appointed Commissioner of The Hampden County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls.