

Stacy Reed-Barnes

Stacy Reed-Barnes is the CEO, Founder, and Principal Consultant for Stacy's Joy Consulting LLC. With over two decades of international experience, she has dedicated her career to empowering individuals with lived experiences of human trafficking, sexual exploitation, prostitution, domestic violence, alcohol and substance use disorders, mental health challenges, incarceration, and reentry. As a passionate survivor leader, consultant, keynote speaker, advocate, and peer mentor, Mrs. Reed-Barnes values the importance of accompanying others on their transformative journeys towards healing and personal development. Her own triumphant narrative fuels her unwavering dedication to her work.

Mrs. Reed-Barnes holds a bachelor's degree in human services from UMass Boston, a master's degree in social work from Wheelock College, and is currently on track to complete her Doctor of Leadership Psychology (LPsyD) at William James College (WJC) this December 2024.

She serves as a clinician for Pine Street Inn, Men's Stabilization at Lemuel Shattuck Hospital, is part of a Mobile Crisis Team in Boston, a Circle Keeper for Transformational Prison Project, a Consultant for RIA Inc., and a lead research assistant on the Human Trafficking Community Research Hub (HTCRH) at William James College. Mrs. Reed-Barnes is the author of "Stacy's Joy, A Woman Moving Forward: The Autobiography," the first book of a five-book series. Stay tuned for "Ode to Girls Like Me" in the fall.

Additionally, Mrs. Reed-Barnes is a member of the Governor's Council to Address Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, and Human Trafficking in Massachusetts and a recipient of the 2024 Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph (CSG) Neighbor-to-Neighbor Grant. Her extensive expertise and personal resilience make her a powerful force in the fight for justice and recovery for everyone on her path of life.
