

Beth Leventhal

Beth Leventhal has been working to end partner abuse since 1986. She is a survivor and the founder and Executive Director of The Network/La Red. She is also a founding member of Boston's GLBT Domestic Violence Coalition and has served on the boards of the Mass. Coalition of Battered Women Service Groups, Emerge, and the Mass. Older Women and Domestic Violence Prevention Project. She wrote and produced the audio program "Voices of Battered Lesbians" and is the co-editor of Same-Sex Domestic Violence: Strategies for Change. She has provided training and technical assistance around the country on LGBTQ+ partner abuse and on survivor leadership to legal and health care providers, domestic violence programs, government agencies, and LGBTQ+ groups.