

Aziza Robinson-Goodnight

An avid artist, activist, entrepreneur, and community organizer, Aziza is a woman committed to shaping, reenergizing and creating systematic, sustainable changes in her native city, Boston, and beyond. According to Aziza, communities need artists and could not survive without a creative perspective.

“Creative individuals are the essence of a thriving community. It always takes the artist to see the beauty and endless possibilities of our neighborhoods”