

Keturah Brewster

Keturah Brewster has been involved with I Have A Future for thirteen years and now leads the organization as the Executive Director supporting young people and grassroots organizers around Massachusetts to increase youth opportunities through policy change and education. Throughout the years, she has been commended for her ability to build supportive relationships with young people, community organizations, city council members, and state legislators. Keturah's expertise in the importance of community organizing and growing leadership development has been widely recognized, leading her to teach numerous undergraduate courses at prestigious institutions such as UMASS Boston, Boston University, and the Harvard University Graduate School of Education.