

Denise Barbosa Lane

Denise has over 30 years of business experience managing teams, developing positive work culture, improving processes, implementing programs, and providing strategic consulting. Denise began her career in the banking industry after receiving a BS in Management, with a double concentration in Finance and Marketing, from the University of Massachusetts at Boston. She also holds an MBA from the Simmons School of Management. In 2019, Denise Co-Founded Raising Multicultural Kids (RMK), an education-based nonprofit dedicated to increasing racial, cultural and anti-bias competency in schools and communities. In 2021, she was named Executive Director, overseeing the strategic direction, including all operations and administrative functions, as well as, managing the sales, contracts, and implementation of RMK programs. Denise is the recipient of the Massachusetts Teachers

Association (MTA) Kathleen Roberts Creative Leadership Award.
